BYE-LAWS UNDER SECTION 559 (42 TO 48) FOR REGULATING THE SPEEDY DISPOSAL OF THE DEAD, ETC.

Bye-laws under section 559 (42) regulating the speedy disposal of corpses.

1. The corpse of every person dying in Calcutta shall be cremated, buried or otherwise disposed of within 30 hours, or, in the event of death being due to any infectious or dangerous disease, within 12 hours, from the time of death.

Provided as follows:—

- (a) If the corpse be required for medico-legal examination, it may be kept undisposed of only so long as may be absolutely necessary.

- (c) If it be enclosed in a metal coffin, or case which is hermetically sealed, it may be kept undisposed of in any place and for any period sanctioned by the Chairman.

2. Whenever a corpse is kept for more than 30 or 12 hours, as aforesaid, without being disposed of, the person in charge thereof shall be bound to keep it in such a manner and at such a place that it may give off no offensive odour, nor otherwise create nuisance, nor prove dangerous to health.

3. Every adult male relative, except a medical attendant, present at the death of any person dying in Calcutta, or if there be no such person present, then the occupier of the house in which the death occurs, or if the death occurs in a public institution, then the officer having the control of such institution, shall be bound to give effect to the aforesaid provisions.

4. No person shall convey a corpse or part of a corpse through any street or public thoroughfare, unless it be decently covered and concealed from public view.

5. No person, while conveying a corpse or part of a corpse through Calcutta, shall deposit it on or near any street or public thoroughfare, except for the purpose of ordinary relief.

The person having control of a burial ground shall be responsible for every infringement of the above bye-laws.

Provided that the Commissioner of Police may, after giving notice to the Chairman of the Corporation, order the re-opening of a grave at any time, when the exhumation of a corpse is deemed by him necessary for police purposes.

The person having control of a burial ground shall be responsible for any infringement of the above bye-laws.

11. In every case of re-opening of a grave or exhumation of a corpse, the person in charge of such re-opening or exhumation shall conduct the process in such manner and with such precautions that no avoidable nuisance or danger to health may be caused thereby.

SPECIALLY FOR BURNING GHATS.

Bye-laws under section 559 (47) regulating cremation.

12. Every person in charge of a corpse brought to a burning ghat for cremation shall be bound to see that no part of the corpse remains without being completely reduced to ashes.

Providing that in the case of the Hindus the navel may be preserved and disposed of in accordance with their religious rules. No person shall remove from the burning ghat any part of a corpse which has been permitted by the Sub-Registrar to be burnt, except the navel. No person shall throw any corpse or any part of a corpse except the navel into the river, or bury any child or foetus on the river side. The Sub-Registrar shall see that these rules are strictly observed.

13. The Sub-Registrar shall permit corpses to be burnt at any time by day or night and shall allow every person to burn the corpse of a relative or friend according to the rites of his or her religion without interference.

14. The Sub-Registrar shall cause the burning ghat in his charge to be swept and kept clean and disinfected and the ashes and sweepings to be removed daily.

15. No Dome or other person shall drink spirituous liquors or be in an intoxicated state or create any disturbance in any burning ghat. The Sub-Registrar shall see that this rule is strictly observed, and shall remove from the burning ghat all persons who are intoxicated or disorderly.

19. No Dome or Brahmin attached to a burning ghat shall demand any fee, gratuity or reward other than that authorized by the Corporation with the sanction of the Local Government for his services at any cremation.

20. Any Dome or Brahmin demanding any fee, gratuity or reward in excess of the fee fixed in the tariff by the Corporation, with the sanction of the Local Government, shall be liable to dismissal at the discretion of the Chairman; and shall also be liable to the penalty prescribed by these bye-laws; and any Brahmin who shall enter the walled enclosure of a burning ghat except when sent for or remain therein after his services have been completed, or after he has been required by the Sub-Registrar or other Municipal officer to quit the same, shall be similarly liable to dismissal and ejection, and shall also be liable to the penalty prescribed by these bye-laws.

21. No person who comes to a burning ghat to cremate a corpse shall be prevented from bringing with him his family priest, should he prefer to have the religious rites performed by him. But every person who comes to a burning ghat to cremate a corpse shall pay to the Brahmin attached to the ghat his authorised fee.

22. Every contractor appointed to supply fuel and other necessaries for cremating corpses to the public shall supply such articles in any quantities that may be required at rates not exceeding those prescribed by the Corporation with the sanction of the Local Government.

23. Every such contractor shall at all times keep in a dépôt situated in the close vicinity of the burning ghat for which he is appointed a sufficient stock of such articles to meet the demand of at least 48 hours.

24. Every such contractor who shall violate bye-law 28 or 29, or shall neglect or refuse to supply fuel and other necessaries for burning corpses at any hour of the day or night, or fail to keep his dépôt open at all times for supplying the same, or shall use false or short weights or supply inferior or unsuitable articles, shall be liable to have his contract as well as his trade license cancelled at the discretion of the Chairman, and shall also be liable to the penalties prescribed by these bye-laws.

25. Every person coming to a burning ghat to cremate a corpse shall be bound to purchase fuel and all other necessaries for the cremation of corpses and which are named in the tariff fixed by the Corporation with the sanction of the Local Government from one of the contractors appointed by the Corporation as long as such contractor is able to supply the same. But every such person shall be at liberty to provide himself from

26. No such contractor, as aforesaid, shall be in an intoxicated state or create any disturbance, or permit any of his assistants and servants to be in an intoxicated state, or create any disturbance in his dépôt at any time of the day or night. Neither the contractor nor any of his assistants and servants shall behave with incivility to or quarrel with any person who may go to his dépôt for the purchase of fuel and other necessaries of cremation or for making payment for articles supplied.

For any breach of this bye-law the contractor shall be liable, at the discretion of the Chairman, to have his contract as well as his trade license cancelled, and shall be liable to pay the penalty prescribed by these bye-laws.

27. For every payment made by a person for fuel and other necessaries of cremation supplied by a contractor and for the services of a Dome and for a Brahmin at any burning ghat, the contractor, Brahmin and Dome concerned shall forthwith grant to the payer an acknowledgment in full, in such form as shall from time to time be prescribed by the Chairman, signed by such contractor, Brahmin and Dome, and countersigned by the Sub-Registrar:

Provided that the Sub-Registrar may sign for a Dome who is unable to write.

28. When the Sub-Registrar at any burning ghat shall be satisfied after due enquiry that any person whose corpse shall be brought for cremation from any place other than a public institution has died without any means of subsistence, he shall allow such corpse to be burnt at the cost of the Corporation:

Provided that such corpses shall be burnt either at the Kashi Mitter's burning ghat, or at the Shahnagore burning ghat, and if taken to any other ghat shall be sent by the Sub-Registrar to one or other of the above-mentioned ghats.
